

This map only represents the major USDA inspected large meat and poultry processing plants. Minnesota also inspects about 55 smaller meat and poultry processing plants through the State of Minnesota "Equal To" Inspection Program. These plants must meet the same standards as USDA but are limited to wholesale distribution within the state.